MARRIAGE TIP OF THE MONTH

Conflict in any relationship is inevitable, but how we handle that conflict is not. When it comes to the spousal relationship, we often experience reoccurring conflict, which is not easily resolved because it is the result of fundamental differences in how we live in and/or view our world. Since it is hard to change a person's natural inclinations, couples must find ways to resolve the ongoing conflict in ways that do not harm the love they feel for each other. One way to do this is to sit together when you are calm and find a middle ground that will work for both of you. We like to be right, so both partners will have to suspend their own desire and look for a workable solution for both. The benefit? Calmer moments, more shared love, and a happy household! Family Ministry Office, 905-528-7988 ext. 2250.

HEARTACHE TO HEALING

Do you need grief support? Heartache to Healing is a program designed to assist people after the death of a loved one, or after another significant loss. The program follows a process developed by Dr. Bill Webster, an expert in grief and experienced leader in grief counselling. Everyone is welcome. There is no fee, but you must register by October 5th. Visit our website for more information at www.stmichaelw.ca/grief-support.

THE ANNUAL SEASON OF CREATION

This season provides special opportunities until October 4th to focus our efforts and reflect on our responsibilities as stewards of creation. To be better informed and to actively participate, check out the resource guide at <https://seasonofcreation.org/>. If you are hosting an event that you would like to share, contact Sarah Guinta at the Diocesan Office of Justice and Peace.
